WASHINGTON PARK STAKES.

Today Secretary Howard announces a grand array of stakes for the Washington Park meeting of 1903. The list is as follows:

The American Derby, three-year-olds, $25,000 added; 1 1/2 miles.

The Sheridan Stakes, three-year-olds, $4,000 added; 1 1/4 miles.

The Englewood Stakes, three-year-old fillies, $2,000 added; 1 mile.

The Drexel Stakes, three-year-olds, $2,000 added; 1 mile.

The Wheeler Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, $7,500 added; 1 1/4 miles.

The Young Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, $5,000 added; 1 3/16 miles.

The Great Western Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, $3,000 added; 1 1/2 miles.

The Oakwood Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, $2,500 added; 1 1/8 miles.

The Midway Stakes, three-year-olds and upward, $2,000 added; 1 1/8 miles.

The Auburn Stakes, three-year-olds and upward, $2,000 added; 1 1/16 miles.

The Hyde Park Stakes, two-year-olds, $7,500 added; 3/4 mile.

The Lakeside Stakes, two-year-old fillies, $2,000 added; 5/8 mile.

The Kenwood Stakes, two-year-old colts, $2,000 added; 5/8 mile.

The Maywood Stakes, two-year-olds, $2,000 added; 5/8 mile.

The Edgewater Stakes, two-year-olds, $2,000 added; 5 1/2 furlongs.

The Quickstep Stakes, two-year-olds, $2,000 added; 1 1/2 miles.

The Lake View Handicap, two-year-olds, $2,000 added; 3/4 mile.

It will be observed that the already superb endowment of the American Derby has been increased to the extent of $5,000 and since the sums set aside for the second and third horses are not increased over the figures of this year, this plump addition is to go to the winning horse of next year. Outside of this advance in value the conditions of the greatest three-year-old race of this country remain unchanged, the entrance and starting fees being the same as those of last year.

The added money to the Hyde Park Stakes for two-year-olds is also increased to the extent of $2,500. As in the case of the American Derby, this increase is solely for the benefit of the future winner, second and third money and entrance and starting fees being unchanged. It is easy to perceive why these two important stakes will now become more desirable than ever in the minds of owners.

The other stakes remain as this year, but the Washington Park Club will give a material increase in purses next year. The minimum of purses remains at $800, but it can be stated with confidence that the number of this value will be much less next year than in 1902 and purses ranging from $700 to $1,000 much more plentiful. The overnight handicaps will range from $1,250 upward.

Entries to these stakes will close January 15, 1903, and that they will be lavish no one can doubt. The Washington Park Club is firmly entrenched in the esteem of the American racing public and that this esteem increases year by year will be amply testified to next June when its gates will be opened to the vast assemblage that will gather to witness the decision of the sixteenth American Derby.

THE CHILDWICK SALE.

The attendance at the Horse Exchange Thursday night was a large and representative one, but while prices ruled fair with certain lots, they hardly came up to expectations. Manager Waugh was disappointed, considering the many substantial buyers present. Henry T. Oxnard paid $5,500 for five lots, while W. C. Pallin's two purchases cost him $5,100. These were the largest buyers at the sale.

The top price, $3,200, of the sale was paid by Henry T. Oxnard for Spanish Match, the royally bred half-sister to the two-year-old winner in England this year, Heather Fire. This seven-year-old mare drew out warm competition between Elliott C. Cowdin, John E. Madden and James Galway, but they were all outbid by Henry Oxnard.

Mr. Pallin's competitors for Dorimere were John Madden and W. S. Fanshawe. The last named stayed in up to $2,300. Then John Madden bid $2,400, and Mr. Pallin's bid of $2,500 got her. The Vespers mare produced a duel between David Gideon and Mr. Pallin, the former retiring at $2,500.

William Lakeland's purchase of the Homespun filly was for W. S. Fanshawe, owner of Heno and Black Hussar, the two-year-old brother to Black Fox. He stood a tussle with J. G. Follansbee and J. G. Hamilton before Lakeland's bid of $1,400 got the youngster. This filly looked the pick of the yearlings.

It was almost a certainty that Meltonian's owner, James Galway, would bid on the Meetar mare Marcella II., and he did up to $1,450. But she was knocked down to R. Newport for $1,500.

AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

A New York exchange of December 19 has this to say about things at and around Sheepshead Bay track these early winter days:

"A midwinter visit to Sheepshead Bay yesterday proved very interesting. The sun had quite an inning and the temperature was not at all disagreeable. The course in tip-top winter shape and no racing grounds in the country is more presentable than the Coney Island Jockey Club's course at the present time. The track has quite recovered from the late blizzard weather and throngs of horses are jogged over it every day. Many improvements are in progress and the scene during the morning was full of life and activity.

"On the backstretch, near where the Sheepshead Bay Gun Club grounds used to be situated, a new stable for J. A. Drake is being built. It will have a brick foundation, will have forty stalls and a kitchen and sleeping rooms, and will be one of the smartest establishments on the course. The Drake racers that are now wintering at Nashville will arrive in the spring and make their summer home at the Bay, which is the Newmarket of America.

"Trainer Frank McCabe has taken up his quarters at the new stable of Perry Belmont, that has been lately erected. The trainer is comfortably situated in a neat suite of rooms adjoining his kitchen, and he is quite comfortable.

"During the morning his racers, that are in perfect winter condition, were sent to jogging exercise over the track and will be ready when a sterner question is asked. Among those allowed that variety of exercise in two sets were the yearlings Lomarka, Ionian, Southampton, Bandyville, Algonquin and the older horses River Pirate and Fly Wheel. The trainer is quite pleased with this new stable and his horses are doing well since being quartered there.

At the Lotos Stable trainer Ed Haffner was busy with his string and regretting the death of one of his yearlings that died the night before. The youngster was a black colt by Loyalist that was most promising. He had worked three furlongs in 36 1/2 seconds, was well engaged and the stable regrets his loss very much. He died of lung fever.

Trainer A. J. Joyner gave his racers their exercise under the shed of his stable and they looked a proper lot as they did the rounds of the barn at a jogging pace. Among the number so exercised were the yearlings Waterford, Consideration, Water Pansy, Ormonde's Right, Shady Lad, Juvenal Maxim, Granade, Yellow Hammer, Extra Low, Honey Bee, St. Juvenal, Florizel, Fitz Rosa, Valour, Emergency, Bambino, Whistle Heather, Hamburg Belle, Schoolmistress, Fine Flour, Gamestrees, Follow Finch, Inquisitive Girl, Moorhen, Austrolina, Doucement, Miss Shylock, Dapple Gold, and the older horses, Waterboy, Boutonniere, Charles Elwood, Sir Voorhies, St. Jude, Lady Sarah, Ada Nay and Parisienne.

"At trainer W. Becker's establishment, on the backstretch, Rone, Scoffer, Bellardo, Glorious and others were seen at jogging exercise around the stable. This trainer has a fine yearling in his charge by The Sailor Prince—Persistence, that is owned by John Daly. The youngster is a most presentable horse and is wintering in fine shape.

"Trainer John Chapman has a youngster housed in the Becket stable that is owned by jockey John Bullman. The yearling is a chestnut colt by Jim Gore—Gallitan. He has been highly tried, is well engaged, and Chapman thinks the jockey has a promising racer."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

W. H. Cheppu, of Louisville, well known throughout the country as a former horse owner, breeder and bookmaker, arrived in New York from France last Wednesday. Mr. Cheppu was seen at the Hoffman House later in relation to the late police rulings in France against certain Americans. He says the statement that he was included in those summoned before the police is not true, and that he never was asked a question about his movements or his goings and his comings for the very simple reason that there was nothing to ask.

Mr. Cheppu thinks that Vincius is the best two-year-old colt in France and Rene Margot the best filly. During his career as a breeder in Kentucky Mr. Cheppu owned the dam, grandam and great-grandam of King's Courier, the Meadowthorpe bred horse that raced with such credit in this country and England. Before he went abroad he was connected with the stables of M. Murphy and J. E. Pepper as commissioner and general manager.

Clem Hellebush, of Cincinnati, has arrived at Lexington, Ky., bringing his racing string, including Autumn Leaves, Lady Meddlesome, Clara Louise and Halcyondale. The horses will be located for the winter at Melbourne Stud, Hellebush says he will remain in Lexington during the winter, going to Memphis in March to complete his training. He expects to start his horses first at the Memphis meeting.

Jockey Charles Milburn, who rode in the east last summer, has left New Orleans for Detroit, where he will visit until after the holidays. He will sail for England with Matt Byrnes on January 3, and will ride for Byrnes next season. Byrnes will train a string of thirty-four head in England for Haggin next year. Eight yearlings and four two-year-olds as part of the string were purchased by cable in England last fall.

LOUISVILLE STAKES.

Always popular and important among the early western meetings of each year the Louisville meeting of 1903 promises more than for a number of years past. The New Louisville Jockey Club has been reorganized in such fashion that its affairs are controlled by respected citizens of Louisville, the result being that its meeting next year will not only be popular, but also distinctly fashionable.

Secretary and Manager Charles F. Price announces in this issue a list of stakes that will be decided next May under the auspices of the new management. The names are mainly those of familiar fixtures, but except in the cases of the Kentucky Derby, Oaks and Nursery Stakes all are now on the added money system and so bound to be of greater value than heretofore. A steeplechase stake with $1,000 added is a new feature. The stakes now offered, entries to which will close January 15, 1903, are these:

The Kentucky Derby, three-year-olds, value $6,000; 1 1/4 miles.

The Kentucky Oaks, three-year-old fillies, value $3,000; 1 1/16 miles.

The Nursery Stakes, two-year-olds, value $6,000; 4 1/2 furlongs.

The Debutante Stakes, two-year-old fillies, $1,000 added; 1 1/2 mile.

The Bashford Manor Stakes, two-year-old colts and geldings, $1,000 added; 4 1/2 furlongs.

The Juvenile Stakes, two-year-olds, $1,000 added; 5/8 mile.

The Clark Handicap, three-year-olds and upward, $1,500 added; 1 1/16 miles.

The Frank Fehr Stakes, three-year-olds and upward, $1,000 added; 1 mile.

The Blue Grass Stakes, three-year-olds, $1,000 added; 6 1/2 furlongs.

The Steeplechase Handicap, $1,000 added; full course.

Besides offering the foregoing stakes, Secretary Price makes the important announcement that no purse of less than $400 will be offered. The movement to raise the value of purses seems to be general throughout the west and this liberal move shows that the New Louisville Jockey Club is abreast of the times and bent on enhancing its popularity with owners.

DAILY RACING FORM commends the stakes here offered to the owners and trainers of the west and expects them to receive record-breaking entry lists.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey T. Walsh and W. H. Fizer have parted company. The split came as a result of the inconsistent running of the horse If You Dare. Walsh was blamed for the acrobatic performance of the horse, to which he took exception. Hence the parting. Walsh will probably go to France. He is considering an offer to ride in that country next season.

Belvino is suffering from lung fever and had to be scratched in the third race at New Orleans last Friday. The horse was apparently doing well on Thursday and his trainer, Jack Baker, advised his friends in New York to that effect. It will be some time before Belvino starts again.

George Miller, who trains for T. D. Sullivan, has shipped two two-year-olds and a yearling from New Orleans to Mobile to train there. The will be trained over the old Bascomb track and shipped back to New Orleans when they are ready.

Durnell & Herz have arranged to ship Rolling Boer, Prince Blazes and Lucien Appleby to Louisville some time next week. All three will be fired and turned out at Lou Jones's farm until late in the spring.

While being galloped on the track Thursday morning at New Orleans My Surprise collided with Jack Demund and, running into the fence, bruised her shoulder and has been retired.

to all those who have subscribed for our information the past year. Orders will be accepted from any part of the United States. This extra special good thing we consider a much better one than Latson, which we gave to over 400 of our patrons when he won at 50 to 1, and also at 7 to 1. Both telegraph companies will verify same. The reason that we consider this one such a good thing is because we are paying large amounts to keep it under cover. It is positively known only to us. This special horse has been shipped here by reliable parties and we can assure our patrons that they can play the limit, as he is good and ready and will be placed in a soft spot. As we do not post the New Orleans public with information our out of town patrons will be assured of long odds. We are going to place a large commission ourselves in poolrooms throughout the United States, and it will be the largest coup of the meeting. In order to prove to the outside public that we do obtain reliable stable information we will wire this one for $1.00, which will include two other specials that we have under cover for the latter part of this week. We prefer, if possible, for you to place your own commission on this one but, if you are unable to do so, we will place the money in nothing less than $30 commissions, charging 25 per cent of net profit. In ordering specify where telegram will reach you Xmas day.

WE PLACE COMMISSIONS

for the benefit of all business men who desire to invest on the races and have not the necessary time to attend to same or go to poolrooms. With our method any business man can invest privately and also attend to his business at the same time having some one at the track looking after his interests. It is to our advantage to make your investments profitable. We will place commissions according to your own instructions by wire, using a private code, if desired, or, if you prefer, you can follow our information and confine your play to what we consider the softest extra specials of the week. On accounts of $25 we will play $5 straight on each, and same in proportion with larger amounts. The name of the special horse which we will place commissions on is always sent in advance before the race. At the end of each week we forward all net profits, deducting 20 per cent, of winnings for our services. All orders must be made payable to VIC BRITTON, Manager, at above address, which will be promptly acknowledged and receive the personal attention of Mr. Britton.

*Apprentice allowance. Winner—B. g. by George Kinney—Princess (Princess Louise) (trained by A. Zimmer). Went to post at 2:01. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Little Jack Horner showed the most speed all the way, but was doing his best at the end. Grantor was in a pocket for the first quarter, broke on the inside of the field and was crowded back and had to go around his field to get up, but fought it out with Bedlam all through the last quarter and outgamed him at the end. Bedlam was a contender all the way, but lost ground by coming wide into the homestretch. El Rey saved ground at every turn, but tired. Alpaca and Azua were not persevered with. Scratched—36707 Peat, 114; 35846 Montanic, 114. Little Jack Horner, show, evens. Grantor, show, 4 to 5. Bedlam, show, 2 to 1.

*Apprentice allowance. Winner—Ch. c. by Lord Esterling—Opeechee (trained by S. C. Hildreth). Went to post at 2:34. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Harry Wilson began slowly, was crowded back at the first turn and had to go around his field to get up, but was hustled along while rounding the last turn and came away easily in the stretch run. Optimo showed the most early speed and Fuller made the most of it, but he was tiring at the end and driving to the limit to stall off Eliza Dillon. The latter would have been second in a few more strides. Bella and Judge Du Relle tired as if short. Scratched—36699 Marcos, 106; 36684 Lemoyne, 96; 36673 Insolence, 95; 36688 Atheola, 96. Welcome Light finished fast under a strong drive. Pirate showed the most early speed, but was used up in setting the pace. Barkelmore finished well. Cologne II showed early speed. Scratched—36682 Tom Maybin, 106. Overweights—Farmer Jim, 2 pounds; Pirate, 24. Farmer Jim, show, out. Welcome Light, show, out. Pirate, show, 2 to 5.

*Added starter. #Coupled in betting. Winner—Ch. g. by Morocco—Kisberr (trained by A. Simons). Went to post at 3:36. At post 6 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second the same. Buchanan rated Moor along for the first mile, saved ground at the turn into the homestretch and the horse finished gamely when it came to a drive. Buchanan decisively outdrew R. Williams in the last furlong. The Lady came through next to the inside rail at the turn into the homestretch. R. Williams let go her head and kept grabbing for the lines at the sixteenth post. With a good rider up she would probably have won. Jessie Jarboe showed the most early speed, ran her race, hung on well at the end and outgamed Little Scout, but was doing her best to stall off Major Mansir at the end. The latter finished fast. Commissioner Forster tired badly. Water Edge refused to join his field. Hayward Hunter was practically left. Scratched—(36493) McChesney, 130. Overweights—Moor, 11 pounds. Simons entry, show, 4 to 5. Durnell & Herz entry, show, 1 to 2. Jessie Jarboe, show, 2 to 1. Little Scout, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c. by Lord Esterling—Tarpaulin II. (trained by S. C. Hildreth). Went to post at 4:10. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Gannon rode a patient race on John Peters, came around the leaders while rounding the far turn and never made a move until straightened out for home, then caught Scorpio and Jane Holly tiring, but had to be hustled along to stall off Harry New. The latter was outrun in the first part of the race, but finished very fast. Boaster began slowly and was on the outside of the field all the way. Jane Holly was used up in racing Scorpio to defeat. The route was not far enough for De Reszke and Potente. Scratched—(36491) McChesney, 124; 36687 St. Tammany, 104. Overweights—Jane Holly, 1 pound; Shrine, 3. John Peters, show, 1 to 2. *Apprentice allowance. Winner—B. c. by Troubadour—Matinee (trained by V. Hughes). Went to post at 4:41. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Helgesen waited with Trocadero for the first mile, moved up to the leaders while rounding the far turn, came wide into the homestretch and fought it out all through the last furlong and outgamed Cogswell when it came to a drive. The latter ran a good race, but tired when the pinch came. Lady Chorister ran her race and had no mishaps. She swerved from the middle of the track to the inside rail in the run home. Latson began slowly and was as good as left. He ran his race, getting to the leaders in the first mile, but his rider had him all over the track. Pay the Fiddler was made too much use of and quit. Scratched—36675 Compass, 105; 36592 Potheen, 90. Trocadero, show, 4 to 5. Cogswell, show, out. Lady Chorister, show, 2 to 5. Latson, show, 7 to 10.

A "LALLAPALOOSA" STARTS THIS WEEK

So you can go down in your "kick" for that "century plant" you've been holding out for SANTA CLAUS; turn up the carpet for stray coins, search all the "togs" you laid aside with the dog days, go through every old sock in the rag bag and "hook" your meal ticket to swell your roll for the prize plunge of your whole and joyous life, for a "Lallapaloosa" starts but once in a season only. We are going to make a sensational plunge all along the line that'll go down into history as the banner "book-smasher" of the year. I have handed you many "killings" right along the line at every eastern track on a straight bill of lading checked right through to New Orleans. I've made you hammer the high-stool "gents" and cart it off in cart-loads week after week. But I want to tell you that your Uncle James has got up his sleeve for this week some real creamy peaches that'll butt into that betting ring like a real old Kansas cyclone on the red eye rampage and rip things up until the slates look as though they had received a bombardment from a man-of-war, and the layers of odds think they've tackled a couple of buzz-saws "on the buzz." This week several grand specials will adorn the program, as we have only been waiting for the track conditions to improve, and we will shoot the "star tricks" under the wire with colors flying. "Sleepers" I've had in bunches, and many a time you have "copped" the coin at prices large enough to span the Great Divide, but none of 'em was a marker when it comes to "greased lightning" speed, to the "money-getter" I am going to hand out. The "slaughter-house pet" has been "prepped" for the grandest coup of the meeting.

The Sports from Missouri

Will be slipping quietly about the betting ring, taking in every slate at a glance and meekly planting one fat wad after another, saying mighty little, but doing most of the business. These sameretring gentlemen will be the commissioners of a few of the slickest "engineers" of the turf today, and they'll be sending in the checks of the "wise" ones on these "dark ones" from the moment the prices go up until the cows come home. If I were at liberty to mention the names of the unobtrusive financiers behind this proposition, you'd understand in a minute why it's dollars to doughnuts that they won't spoil the success of many years by letting this one fall through. I cannot positively undertake to wire this one away except on a private cipher code. It's up to you—that's all. Each week I mail a special list of the BEST WEEKLY WORKOUTS, so that my clients can keep in close touch with the condition of the horses. TERMS for SIX SPECIAL TRACK WIRES (sent in cipher code) $10. All turfites who will send me their names and address I will mail a free copy of "HOW TO BET SUCCESSFULLY."

SPECIAL OFFER I make the following offer to clients who are unable to play themselves or place their money: Send me an account of $25 or $50, and I will place $5 or $10 at the track on each of my selections, wiring or mailing (as desired) you the information each morning, and at the end of each week remitting you the winning by P. O. money order, with an itemized statement showing the horses played, odds, etc., thereby giving you everything "Black on White." When placing accounts I charge nothing for the information, but deduct 20 per cent. of the winnings as my commission. Accounts should be sent at once, so as to take advantage of those mentioned above.

Winner—Ch. c. by Matt Byrnes—Barmaid, by Ill-Used (trained by D. S. Fountain).
Went to post at 2:04. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Bard Burns, suddenly improved and ran as if he outclassed the field. Away running, he forced the pace throughout and outstayed Katherine Ennis at the end. The latter, also much improved, followed the winner's pace closely from start to finish and held on unexpectedly well. Oscar Tolle was tiring fast and barely saved third place from Legal Maxim. The latter closed up considerable ground and is best on a sloppy track. Estado was a bad horse today and can do better.

Scratched—36689 Skip Me, 107; 36689 Roitair, 107; 36679 Nellie Hawthorne, 102.

Time, 1:13.

Winner—Ch. m. by St. Felix—True Blue II (trained by J. Burrows).
Went to post at 2:31. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Maggie Felix rushed up next to the rail from a flatfooted start and decisively outtraced and outstayed her field, won going away, and is evidently above the average class. Ned Dennis closed up strongly at the end. Golden Cottage was crowded in the first furlong, came wide on the stretch turn and finished with a rush. His race was unexpectedly good. Mocoquito tired at the end after having locked horns with Maggie Felix for five furlongs, but stuck to her work gamely. Azarine, away badly, closed a big gap. Troy quit after going a fast half and is evidently a non-stayer except in mud. All Green was closing up at the end. Homage was outclassed.

Scratched—36642 Arthur Ray, 109.
Maggie Felix, show, 11 to 20. Ned Dennis, show, 3 to 2. Golden Cottage, show, 4 to 1. Mocoquito, show, 1 to 2. All Green, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by Juvenal—Sister Geneva (trained by J. Coffey).
Went to post at 2:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Evea G. assumed command in a jiffy, led unextended by a wide margin from start to finish and was easing up in the stretch. She can beat the best here and is a high class filly. Bessie McCarthy broke slowly, went from last to second place in a furlong on the backstretch and made a hard, unavailing effort to cut down the winner's big lead, in spite of which she easily came away from the others and ran up to her best form. Diderot was skillfully handled and finished well and caught Lode Star tiring badly after having shown improved speed. Ravino finished fast. Hesper was out of place.

Scratched—36708 Autolight, 115; 36689 Expedient, 106.
Evea G., show, out. Bessie McCarthy, show, 1 to 4. Diderot, show, 9 to 10.

Winner—Br. c. by Sain—Ada Reese (trained by C. T. Patterson).
Went to post at 3:22. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Corrigan, in great form, forced the pace throughout and decisively disposed of the field one by one and came away fast from Vesuvian's strong challenge in the stretch. The latter lay in behind the pacemaker, running well in hard for six furlongs and finished fast when called on, but was no match for the winner and should improve. Marque, away in her stride and lucky, gradually fell back to last place at the half, from where she commenced to move up again, finished with a rush and caught Flush of Gold tiring at the end. Marque will beat the best at one and one-quarter miles or more. Flush of Gold, away poorly, was excessively used and failed to stay. Illowaho went well throughout and finished strongly.

Corrigan, show, out. Vesuvian, show, 1 to 2. Marque, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Blk. c. by Watercress—Hinda Dwyer (trained by W. B. Jennings).
Went to post at 3:48. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second easily. Krishna secured a lucky start, but was crowded and pocketed early. He then waited on the pacemaker to the stretch where he flashed to the front, cantering, was never extended, much the best and is another Water Color. Nervator ran a fast and game race and was easily the best of the others, forced the pace to the stretch and held on gamely. Organdie, away flatfooted, trailed and went a wide stretch turn, but finished fast and ran an extra game race. The Fog went the long way around and was steadily improving his position under an incompetent ride. Polonius caught the others tiring. Sylvia Talbot is still short, ran under a pull for the first half, then tired. Orfeo quit after forcing a terrific pace.

Corrected weights—The Fog, 113.
Krishna, show, 1 to 2. Nervator, show, evens. Macdonough entry, place, 4 to 5, show, 1 to 2. Organdie, show, 1 to 2. Orfeo, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Emperor of Norfolk—La Plata (trained by G. W. Baldwin).
Went to post at 4:18. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Huachuca was lucky, had clear sailing, came through next to the rail in the last quarter after benefitting at the expense of the pacemakers and wore Sad Sam down at the end. The latter was forced out at a fast pace for five furlongs by Irene Lindsey, which he decisively disposed of and was caught napping at the end by the winner. Irene Lindsey followed the pacemaker closely, but was unable to cope with him in the stretch drive. Erema was fast, but was outclassed today. Sly is not in good form. Constellator ran badly.

Scratched—36632 Golden Light, 110; 36621 Nonie, 94.
Huachuca, show, 1 to 2. Sad Sam, show, out. Irene Lindsey, show, out.

Our One Horse Per Day Play at New Orleans Gets the Money.

OUR ONE HORSE DAILY PLAY PAST FOUR DAYS:
Wednesday. Scotch Plaid, 7 to 5, won
Thursday. Commissioner Forster, 8 to 5, won
Friday. Sweet Alice, 1 to 2, won
Yesterday. Harry Wilson, 1 to 3, won

Given good weather and a fair track at New Orleans we can't lose a bet for you. Even when the track is bad the worst we ever get for you is an even break. Our dispatches indicate good weather and a good track indefinitely from now on, and our famous corps of track experts announce that never in the history of the Maxim & Gay Company have they had up their sleeves such a bunch of good things as they will spring for the benefit of our clients in the next ten days. You can't afford to miss us from now on. We are clearly in our stride. If you are wise you will cut in and get some of the picking, as 390 per cent. are the dividends earned the past four days, and yet the plays we have made in that period are the most conservative that could have been selected. The four were sure winners. We never shot at the moon. The stockholders of the Maxim & Gay Company bet thousands daily on the one-horse selection, and the money of our clients is, therefore, as preciously handled as theirs. The outlook for the present week is really glowing. The track is in good condition and promises to remain so. Our experts are on the ground now and they have mastered every detail of the game. They look forward the next fortnight to the biggest winning percentage of their career. String along with us and you will get the money.

We Handle Your Money with Caution.

The success of our precautionary measures to surround our tremendous operations with every safeguard is apparent to all. As every racegoer realizes, publicity as to our planned coups before the races are run would endanger success and therefore we allow none. As a pledge of good faith the Maxim & Gay Company at 2 p. m. daily places in the hands of the editor of the New Orleans Item the selection on which the money of our clients is to be played, and also mails to each subscriber the name of the selection, such letter bearing a postmark at least one hour prior to the time the race is run. When specially requested the name of the horse and the odds secured are communicated by telegraph after the races to subscribers.

All money of our clients is placed through Mr. Sol Lichtenstein, the noted eastern bookmaker, who gets it down in a dozen cities through agents and thereby secures best results. Fee for placing your commission is 5 per cent of net weekly profits. This is Mr. Lichtenstein's charge. Fee for the information is $10 weekly. This is Maxim & Gay's charge. Statements mailed weekly with check for profits. Accounts subject to withdrawal at two hours' notice.

The following are the minimum betting accounts that will be accepted:

For a $10 daily play on one horse, $50. For a $20 daily play on one horse, $100. For a $50 daily play on one horse, $250. For a $100 daily play on one horse, $500. For larger plays sums in proportion.

Remit direct to the Maxim & Gay Company, 928 Canal street, New Orleans. All accounts received by the Maxim & Gay Company will be played by Mr. Sol Lichtenstein, or some other agent of the Maxim & Gay Company, and the Maxim & Gay Company will make all accountings direct to its clients. The Maxim & Gay Company assumes all responsibility for a proper execution of its clients' orders. Our friends are cautioned against sending money through the mails without registering. No checks accepted unless certified.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

According to "Virginia" Bradley, Robert Wad dell, which won the American Derby in 1901, may race again next season. The colt has been suffering for nearly a year from a broken shoulder bone, but that has mended perfectly and Bradley says it will never hurt the colt's chances again. The only ailment now is in the ligaments which have contracted, caused by the fact that the colt's leg has been useless so long. "You would never know Robert," says Bradley. "He is as fat as a hog and has grown so much in the last year that if he is able to train on I believe he will be the best five-year-old in the country next season. He had no equal as a three-year-old and but for his hard luck he would have gone right on beating those stake horses every time he met them, no matter what weight he had up. That is where the handicappers always made a mistake with Robert. He was a little colt, but as powerful as an ox and could carry as much weight as Advance Guard, Pink Coat, Sidney Lucas or any of those older horses."

Several Americans who spent the last racing season in France, being asked their opinion of the effect of the verdict in the suit of J. Reiff against the Vie au Grand Air, said they believed it by no means restored Reiff's license, but the good effect of the evidence of St. Saulge's owner and trainer was not to be denied.

Reiff's next step will be to apply to the stewards of the French Jockey Club for a restoration of his license. M. Edmond Blanc, one of the most noted turfmen of France, is supporting Reiff, and if reinstated the young American will ride for M. Blanc for a salary of $15,000 per annum.
